GRAY MAN ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY TO VALERO GAS STATION

According to Sheriff Ed Graybeal, a Gray man has been arrested for a break-in at the Valero gas station located at 5357 Kingsport Highway.

In the early morning hours of June 13, 2019 forced entry was made to the gas station and the suspect entered to store and stole an assortment of lottery tickets and cigarettes.

During an investigation, Christopher W. Peregoy, 112 North Creek Drive, Gray, was developed as a suspect after he was seen on security camera footage scanning a stolen lottery ticket from the break.

Investigators also recovered clothing matching the description that the suspect was wearing during the incident.

Peregoy was charged with one count of Burglary in addition to one count of Theft of Property under $1,000. He was booked into the Washington County Detention Center on a $10,000 bond and is scheduled for arraignment in Session Court Monday at 1:30 pm.
