JONESBOROUGH TEEN ARRESTED AFTER ELUDING OFFICERS

According to Sheriff Ed Graybeal, a Jonesborough teenager has been arrested after he fled from deputies attempting to serve warrants on him, on the afternoon of December 12.

Dylan Carder, age 19, was wanted for Violation of Probation. He was spotted driving a pickup truck Thursday afternoon on Bill West Rd. After deputies attempted to apprehend him, Carder fled in a vehicle, almost striking a construction worker. The pursuit was terminated at that time.

It was later learned, Carder was also sheltering a runaway juvenile, who was a passenger in the truck at the time he fled from officers.

On Sunday, December 15, both Dylan Carder and the runaway juvenile were apprehended in Greeneville with the assistance of the Greene County Sheriff's Office. Both Carder and the runaway juvenile surrendered to officers without incident.

Carder was booked into the Washington County Detention Center on the two existing warrants, as well as warrants obtained regarding the incident on December 12. He currently faces charges of Violation of Probation, Evading Arrest by Motor Vehicle, Driving on Suspended License, Reckless Endangerment, and Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor.

He is being held at the Detention Center on a $47,000 bond, and is scheduled for arraignment in Sessions Court at 1:30pm.

The juvenile in this case was turned over to the Department of Children's Services.
